

HE WANTS WIFE, OH! SO BADLY

Thomas McNulty, Sixty Years
Old, but Looking Younger,
Needs Helpmeet, but Would Like to Know Who Hit Him.

A HOT TRYSTING PLACE.

He Doesn't Want Much—Only a Nice,
Sensible, Good-Looking Girl Who
Is Equipped with Something
Worldly to Set Off His 2 Houses.

"Yes, I really want to get a lovable wife. Not one that puts on lots of airs, but a companion who will love me, cook for me and keep the house for me. I don't want an old woman. I want a nice, pretty, sensible, good-looking girl. I have advertised in the New York papers, and though I have received many answers, none of the girls seems to suit me. I find some of the New York women that write to me are too fresh or else they want to know too much about me. Although I am sixty years old, I look younger."

"Whoever wrote that letter to me making an appointment, and then when I went to the spot arranged for in the girl's letter had a gang of toughs throw stones, sticks, stale eggs and other things at me, will have to suffer for it." Thus spoke Thomas McNulty, who owns two houses at Mount Vernon, one of which he occupies alone at No. 531 South Tenth avenue, when questioned to-day about a mysterious girl who made love to him in a letter, and after enticing him to a trysting place, had him assaulted. McNulty is worth and swears vengeance on the fair one who made the plot. He has appealed to Chief of Police Foley for protection, and Detectives Lynch and Atwell have been assigned to run down the letter-writer and find the young men who were hidden behind a stone wall when they attacked him.

McNulty has lived alone ever since his wife died three years ago. Recently he inserted this advertisement in a New York newspaper when his loneliness overcame him:

RESPECTABLE MAN, 45, with home, desires to marry respectable woman or widow, some means. Address M. 531 S. 10th ave. Mount Vernon, N. Y.

In answer to this notice McNulty received a bushel-basketful of letters, some from old maids, young maidens, grass widows and old "widows," as he calls them. For several weeks he says he has kept up a secret correspondence with some of the writers.

TRAGEDY INVADERS RECREATION PIER.

Three People Had Just Been Saved
from Drowning When Margaret McManus Drank Poison.

The body of Margaret McManus, who drank carbolic acid while a crowd looked on at Recreation Pier, foot of West Fifth street, is still at the Morgue, although it is expected that a brother will claim it to-day. The crowd, which was thrown into a panic by the young woman's act, had previously seen three persons rescued from the river.

John Gerst and Ida Evans hired a rowboat and invited little Jennie Snyder to go along. The child missed her foot in stepping into the boat and fell into the water. In trying to reach her Miss Evans also fell overboard, and the young man leaped in to save them.

The crowd cheered him as he got each by the arm and held them safely above the water while he called for help. Two lifesavers went to his assistance and soon hauled all three to the pier. They were taken to their home at No. 540 West Forty-fifth street.

The excitement of the event had scarcely subsided when a young woman walked nervously on the pier. She cast a frightened look about her and then drained the contents of a bottle which she took from the front of her dress. The air became heavy with the fumes of carbolic acid and she fell.

An ambulance was called, but she was dead when the surgeon reached her side. Her body was taken to the station house, where it was identified by William Loughan, who lived in the same house. He said she was a dressmaker and had been dependent over ill health for some time.

CAN COP BE MADE TO STAND ON HIS HEAD

Question of Extent to Which Official
Orders May Go Gravely Argued
Trial of Police Sergeant.

He questioned whether a Police Commissioner or his deputies had a right to ask a policeman to stand on his head or obey other orders outside the line of his duty was hotly debated before Deputy Commissioner Piper in the trial room at Headquarters to-day. The argument was introduced by Attorney Grant, counsel for Sgt. Charles L. Schaeffer, who was charged with insubordination in that he refused to testify against himself while on trial last week before Deputy Commissioner Davis. The Sergeant was accused of accepting money from his pupils in the school of instruction. Davis asked him to take the stand and upon the advice of his lawyer he refused.

"Why," exclaimed Mr. Grant, arguing that Davis might as well have asked him to stand on his head, turn a back somersault, swallow a sword or sit on a chair, it was no more in the line of his duty and he was within his rights to refuse."

Mr. Davis replied to the acrobatic contention by a long argument in which the proposition to order an officer to stand on his head was closely involved.

Mr. Grant drew a startling picture of a platoon of blue coats top-sy-turvy, with feet waving in the air. He argued the matter pro and con until Mr. Piper became so dizzy he was compelled to hold on to his chair for support and finally clinched the argument by closing the trial and reserving decision.

ICE-CREAM MAN'S DAUGHTER SUITS HOT-WEATHER SHOW.

Miss Bessie Denham, of Brooklyn, Is One of the Three Sisters in "The Blonde in Black."

Bessie Denham, a Brooklyn girl, who is one of the three sisters in "The Blonde in Black," is peculiarly fitted for a summer production. Her father made his money in the ice-cream business.

Miss Denham says that almost from the time she was able to sit up and notice a soda fountain she had a yearning to go on the stage. She first felt an impulse to jump right in as Juliet, but in the end she managed to content herself with a small part in Viola Allen's company, after which she mingled with the crowd in "Sally in Our Alley."

Miss Denham feels she will rise to great things. Meanwhile father is keeping the freezer busily turning.

IS YOUR KIDNEY REMEDY CURING YOU?

Or Are You Thoughtlessly
Using a Liquid Medicine?

NOT A DROP OF ALCOHOL IN KIDNEY-WORT TABLETS.

The best test of a kidney remedy is whether it cures permanently. If your backache, headache, rheumatism or urinary troubles come back as soon as you stop taking the medicine, the remedy is worse than useless—it is making your kidney trouble chronic.

No permanent cure can be expected from any liquid-prepared kidney remedy. The alcohol used in liquid preparations makes it absurd to speak of them as remedies. They are inciters of the worst forms of kidney trouble. There is not a medical man in the world who does not realize the absurdity of a liquid kidney remedy.

There is no excuse for any one using a harmful kidney remedy. Dr. Pettigill's Kidney-Wort Tablets, because they contain no alcohol and cure permanently kidney diseases without injuring the heart or the stomach, have the confidence of physicians who would never think of ordering a liquid kidney remedy.

The beginnings of kidney trouble show themselves in one or several of the following symptoms:

Backaches, loss of appetite, cloudy or milky colored, fragrant urine, swelling of hands and feet, bloating of the body, and unnatural thirst, alternate chills and flushes, rheumatism, and quick, unsteady heart beats, urine becomes scanty and often tinged with blood, the bowels obstinately constipated, the pulse more frequent and smaller, and the sufferer anxious and restless; shooting, cutting and tearing pains in the back, headaches, urine bright red, depositing whitish sediments, a growing weakness, fugitive and obscure pains in the lumbar region, drowsiness, emaciation, shortness of breath, dizzy feeling, disturbed sleep.

If you experience any of the above symptoms, or have any doubt or suspicion of the health of your kidneys, test your urine yourself. If your water, when allowed to remain undisturbed in a glass or bottle for twenty-four hours, forms a sediment or settling, or has a cloudy appearance, it is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need immediate attention. Kidney-Wort Tablets has repeatedly cured desperate cases of Bright's Disease and Diabetes.

CHANGE THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

The air we breathe is often a source of danger and disease. Much of the risk might be avoided if all carriages were thoroughly cleaned twice a year. We employ only the most approved process. Our cars are kept in perfect condition and are brighter if they are cared for regularly in our Carpet Cleaning and Upholstery Department.

Cupid's Busy Month.

June is Cupid's busy month—our busy month, too, for most brides seem to want a LAMBERT SEAMLESS WEDDING RING. Good taste and prudence both dictate such a preference. Not only are they made of virgin gold without an atom of solder, but our prices are lower than retail jewellers themselves have to pay for similar high quality. Lambert seamless wedding rings are one of the most popular out-puts of their factory, and the traditions of purity and honest value that cluster round them shall ever be maintained.

VISITORS TO THE LAMBERT FACTORY

(to which you also are welcome) are surprised and pleased when they notice its thorough equipment and the large number of skilful artisans employed. Manufacturing almost all our own goods, we not only guarantee their absolute worth, but the price-saving is oft-times astonishing. Our customers have no jobbers' and retailers' profits to pay. Nothing but the first factory cost, with a very modest percentage added.

Since our beginning in 1877 every energy of the firm has been directed toward selling fine jewelry for less money than similar qualities can be bought for elsewhere. Our factory is the happy solution of these efforts.

Graduation Gifts.

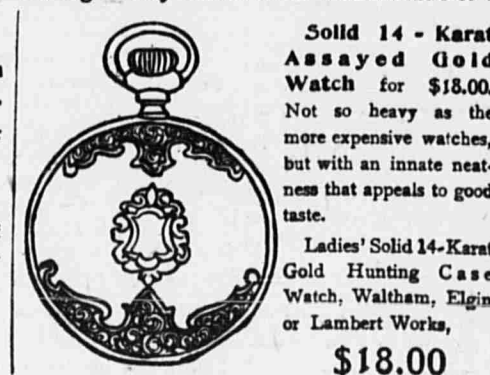

A daily happening at Lambert Bros. is to find something nicer than you thought you could afford to get at the price. Last year there was a great sale of watches as graduation gifts. If exceptionally low prices are any inducement, the experience will be repeated this season.

What young relative or friend would not appreciate a fine watch? Not only is it a constant reminder of its generous donor, but impresses the golden habit of promptness upon the wearer. Nowhere else in New York can you inspect such a magnificent assortment of watches, and the Lambert Bros.' saving on any one of them would make it well worth your while.

Diamond Engagement and Birthday Rings.

Unless you are an expert, buying a diamond is largely a matter of faith. When you go to Lambert's you may be certain of two things—that the gems they sell you are absolutely what the salesmen says they are and that the price will be less than what they can be imported for to-day. We import our stock of diamonds direct from the diamond markets and save you all the middlemen's profits.

This example, at $75, cannot be imported at the price to-day.

Remounting Jewelry.

For a quarter of a century of reputation building the firm of Lambert Bros. has been bringing its factory to its present complete form. It manufactures the finest jewelry sold in New York and gives employment to a large force of designers and artisans. These artists and workmen give particular attention to the remodeling and refashioning of old pieces of jewelry—such as exist in every household—into new and fashionable shapes. The cost is comparatively trifling. With the factory and force on the premises one may explain their idea to a Lambert artist. The artists submit designs without delay and the work is quickly done. The work is under the personal supervision of one of the firm. This is one of the best seasons of the year to have your jewelry remodeled.

REPAIRING OF WATCHES and Clocks done by experts in our factory tells briefly the story of our constantly growing repair department. The fact that we are the official watch inspectors of the NEW YORK CENTRAL & HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD AND THE LONG ISLAND RAILROAD shows how highly our services are regarded in the circles where "correct time counts."

Bridesmaids', Ushers' and Bon Voyage Gifts.

We have an admirable selection of suitable commencement, bon-voyage, birthday, wedding, ushers' and bridesmaids' gifts, among them fine rings, stickpins, bracelets, earrings, lockets, scarfpins and links; sterling silver belts, links, fountain pens, etc.

Many of these articles are made in our own factory on the premises; others we buy direct from first hands. In either case, our prices are always less than similar qualities can be bought for elsewhere.
